

The Gun line comprised of 6 guns attached to 6 limbers, each pulled by 6 horses. Each gun had 7 cannoneers, 1 Gunner, a Corporal and a Chief of the Piece, a Sergeant. The Gun Line was divided into 3 sections with two guns in each. Each section was commanded by a second Lieutenant

The Caisson line comprised 6 caissons attached to 6 limbers. Each caisson commanded by a Corporal and manned by drivers and unassigned personnel. The Caisson line was commanded by a First Lieutenant, who also acted as the XO to the Battery Commander.

The Battery was commanded by a Captain. Battery command included 2 staff NCO's, A first Sergeant and a Commissary Sergeant

Caisson Line
Caisson and Limber
total 3 ammunition chests

Gun Line
Gun and Limber
one ammunition chest

Civil War 6 gun Battery